

Accommodation options for women with children

LOUISE PLACE

5 Randolph Avenue, Fullarton
ph 8272 6811

- Louise Place offers 24 hour supported accommodation to young women who are up to 18 years of age and are pregnant or have just had a baby. If you are pregnant and feel you need support with this stage of your life you may find it useful to stay at Louise Place.
- Louise Place offers high school education and has a day centre which offers a mum's group and child minding whilst you're involved in activities.
- Outreach accommodation and services for single young mothers up to the age of 25 are also provided.
- You can contact them yourself, but there is often a waiting list.

Talk to Housing SA about their waitlists, and assistance with bond and rent in advance. Centrelink can also help with rent assistance.

RIGBY COTTAGES

- For single parents 18 years and over that are on Centrelink payments. They offer properties with cheap rent in the Edwardstown/Woodville area.
- You can phone Scarce Real Estate on 8332 1488 for more information.

Have you thought about booking into a caravan park or cheap hotel for the short-term?

Talk to your Trace-A-Place worker about going on the FAIRS waitlist or call 1800 003 308.

YOUNG WOMEN'S AND CHILDREN'S SUPPORT SERVICES COALITION INC (YWACSS)

- The following 2 services may be able to offer you accommodation if you are a single mum between the ages of 12-25 and homeless or at risk of becoming homeless.
- The workers are trained to offer you support with independent living and parenting. These services offer on-site supported accommodation, and outreach properties.
- A referral isn't necessary and you can contact them yourself. There may be a waitlist.
